SOPHISTICATED LIVING

{Louisville's Finest}

slmag.net

Mar/Apr 2019
five dollars

Of Note... Rock On Compiled by Colin Dennis

This page top to bottom: The Stonehenge Bar set from Paradigm Trends resembles stone but is made from practical resin ($185; paradigmtrends.com). Hancock & Moore Noble chairside table (to the trade; hancockandmoore.com). Black stone floor lamp from Damon Art (price upon request; damonart.eu). Taylor King Mitchell dining chair (to the trade; taylorking.com). NativeStone 72" Avalon tub in a slate finish (price upon request; nativetrailshome.com). Jonathan Charles two-piece faux marble drinks table (to the trade; jonathancharlesfurniture.com). Maison Valentina Diamond towel rack of polished brass and nero marquina marble (price upon request; maisonvalentina.net). Resin gold Rock On! hand from Audenza ($20; audenza.com). Opposite page: Think Thin is composed of natural stone panels cut at a delicate 1/2-inch thickness, which dramatically decreases the cost and manpower required for both shipping and installation (price upon request; nemotile.com). The Equilibriste sofa by Patrick Knoch for Extranorm rests on a rocking stainless steel base ($6,765; extranorm.com). First rocking chair designed by Muller Van Severen for Valerie Objects ($2,760; valerie-objects.com). Knife set designed by Sylvia Pauliac ($2,390/set; creations-pauliac-mousseau.com). Sagaform rocking whisky glasses ($49.95/6; gyrofish.com). Handmade Rocca bath mat from Aquanova with a pebbled effect ($236; aqua nova.com). Mosaic tile from Artaic's ReSalvage Collection in a Corcabo Ash pattern (price upon request; artaic.com).